

Most Important Questions (Psychology)

1. Where are you going to study? / Where are you going?

I am going to pursue my Bachelor in Psychology at XYZ State University, which is located in XYZ State, ABC City.

2. Why only the USA, not other countries? / Why USA?

US always leads in providing the well-established course curriculum in psychology with an emphasis on mental health issues and the on hand experience & research that they provides on clinical experiences under the guidance of renowned experts perfectly aligns with my career goals of becoming a clinical psychologist once I return back to my home country which make me more fascinated to drawn my mentality to choose Us for my further study.

3. Why this university? Why did you choose this University?

Besides well-structured course curriculum and clinical lab technology, I was particularly drawn to conduct my own research regarding the mentality of people with the guidance of professor Dr. Debbie Tindell who have been doing his research in Mental trauma and anxiety. Under his valuable guidance its, a opportunity to learn moreover regarding my major which will lead me with supplement ideology to become a successful clinical psychologist once return back to Nepal.

Beside this, I had talked with some of the University alumina and get a positive feedback regarding the intuition which seek my attention more to choose this University particularly.

4. Why do you want to study this major?

I was always fascinated to understand the mental process of human being and always wanted to help with people who are dealing with mental health issues such a depression, anxiety and trauma which are not vocally spoken in Nepal. Besides this there are only 30th certified clinical psychologist in Nepal and I want to be a professional 31st psychologist who is going to bring out the revolutionary change in my home country regarding this field.

5. Why you haven't done SAT?

Well Officer, SAT was not mandatory to my University however I have secured good amount of scholarship from my University based on my GPA and well written personal statement. Along with it, my parents are fully capable of funding my all the necessary tuition fee and living expenses while staying at United States.

6. How do you know about Wright State University?

While shortlisting the Universities in the US, I have found this University in Niche.com and US News website which fits for my course. I also did research about the University's course, syllabus, faculties, graduate success rate, ranking and was convinced with every means. So, I decided to go to this university for a Bachelor in Psychology.

10. Can you please tell me more about your course curriculum that you are going to study?

My overall course accumulates 120 credit hours. In the first year, I will be studying subjects like Cyber Network security, Host Network Security, Information Security and Security Attacks and Defenses which accumulate 3 credit hours each. Along with it, In the final year we have two solo projects, which are based on advanced coursework & Security projects that accumulate 12 and 06 credit hours respectively.

12. How will this qualification be of use to you? Plans After Graduation.

After completion of my graduation, I intend to work under mental health organization called as Healthy Minds Nepal to gain professional experiences and practical closure. After that, I aim to establish my own psychology and counselling clinics in collaboration with Nepal government to provide the valuable insights regarding mental health issues in every possible areas of Nepal. In addition to this, I intend to provide the mental health awareness to the people who are still the victim of depression, anxiety in my home country.

13. Sponsor

Make you own here!!!!

14. Do you know about the State that you are going to?

Officer, Ohio State has a rich history in innovations particularly in the aerospace & engineering field. Similarly, it is famous as a birthplace of aviation where Wright Brothers conducted an experiment which led to the invention of airplanes. Besides these, Ohio Renaissance Festival, Ice Wine Festival, The Book Festival are famous festivals of Ohio State.

15. Can't you get a similar qualification in Nepal?

Well Officer, I have checked for the options in Nepal too but the Universities in Nepal perfectly do not provide the same major of study yet.

Similarly it, stills lacks some portions like delayed in the result publication that leads to late graduation. Similarly, due to lack of lab infrastructures and courses here focuses on theoretical portions rather than using computers to solve real world problems which are fulfilled by the US universities to achieve my goal of becoming Clinical psychologist in my home country.

16. How can you adapt to a new place as it's a diverse country?

Going to a new place might be challenging but actively participating in cultural events, community activities and social gathering will enhance my comfort zone to connect people with different diverse backgrounds. By exchanging the cultural differences we can make cultural harmony in the diverse culture as I have been growing in a diverse land since my childhood.

Some Miscellaneous Question:

1. What are the names of the other universities you have applied to? How many acceptances did you receive?

After my last rejection, I have applied for only one University because while researching the Universities, Wright State University had fulfilled all the requirements that I was wondering for.

2. When is your course starting?

The course starts on 13th January 2025 and ends on 20th August 2027.

3. What will you do if you do not complete the course within the stipulated duration?

Unless an emergency occurs like COVID pandemic or unfortunate events happen, I don't think there would be any problem in completing the course in time as I have been a very sincere, dedicated and hardworking student since my childhood.

3. Do you have any hobbies?

Regarding my hobbies, I like to watch motivational videos, doing yoga in the sharp morning and spending my leisure time with nature. Along with it, I love travelling new adventures places with my colleagues.

5. Where will you stay in the US?

I will stay on campus so that I can get more chances to engage with my professor and can make the study more concentrated.

6. Do you intend to study for another course after you finish the one you are currently enrolling for?

No officer, my main aim is to pursue my Bachelor degree from the United States and return back to Nepal to utilize those skills that I have learned in the field of Psychology as I want to be the public figure to provide bring the drastic change in the field of mental health education.

7. Do you have any intention to do part time work in the U.S. along with your studies?

No, I don't have any such intention beyond my studies as I am pretty aware about all the F1 Visa criteria's and my parents are enough capable to fund my education.

8. Do you know how many hours a student can work in the U.S.?

In f1 -visa status Students can work maximum for 20 hours per week but that must be on campus.
(On campus jobs only/ not outside the campus)

9. Are you totally dependent on part-time work to cover your living expenses?

No, I am not. My parents will bear all the entire expenses for my studies.

10. Do you think you deserve to get an F1 visa?

Considering my solid academic profile, strong research and good financial support from my family, I feel myself as a perfect candidate to deserve an F1 Visa. Besides that I have a clear intention to return back to my home country after my graduation.

11. What will you do if I don't issue you a visa?

I believe I have fulfilled all the requirements for the F1 visa and if I've lacked something then I will work on the things and reapply. I have done a lot of hard work for my dream. I don't lose hope easily.